

Ecuador has no fiber optic cables

Overview

Fibre optic (FTTH/FTTB): Fibre-to-the-home and fibre-to-the-building connections are available in Quito, Guayaquil, Cuenca, and other large cities, provided by operators such as Netlife, Xtrim, Claro, and CNT. Implementing an FTTH (Fiber to the Home) project in Ecuador could be a significant endeavor with the potential to greatly improve internet connectivity and access to high-speed broadband services for residents and businesses across the country. The Submarine Cable Map is a free and regularly updated resource from TeleGeography. CNT (Corporación Nacional de Telecomunicaciones) is the state-owned operator and one of the most widely recognised providers in the country. CNT offers a range of internet services, including fibre optic, cable, and DSL connections. Latam FiberHome produces ADSS cable, Drop Cable, DUCT Cable, optical fiber cables. The Ecuadorian optical fiber cables market declined to $X in 2025, waning by X% against the previous year.
